

The SpongeBob Musical

A Review By The Rover Reporter

Hiya! I'm Rosie, your local Rover Reporter, here to review the paw-some production of The SpongeBob Musical.

Oh my paws, the songs had me dancing in my seat! SpongeBob was such a happy guy — I really like his positivity — and that one song was so catchy! (I was singing Best Day Ever for days.)

I was already so excited and then... THERE WAS A SQUIRREL! Her name was Sandy and she was so dog-gone smart! (Sorry. Sorry. That was unprofessional, but I just love Squirrels so much...)

Anyways, I don't want to spoil anything, but the show was a treat! I loved SpongeBob and Patrick's friendship, Plankton's dramatics, and Sandy's bravery (not to mention that bone-tastic hair of hers)!

All in all, I give it 5 Stars and a bouquet of Roses!

Stay Paw-sitive!

Signed,
