I will go to The Rose Theater.
The outside of The Rose Theater
looks like this.

I am going to see the Rose Theater's production of Disney's Beauty and the Beast!

I will walk inside the lobby.

The lobby is a big room where people wait outside the theater.

I will wait in line for my ticket.

I will wait quietly and patiently.

Once we get our tickets, my family and I will have two choices.

The first choice is:
We can enter the theater to pick our seats.

The second choice is:
We can wait where it is less
crowded in a blue room.
(This room is called Classroom #2).

I can stay there with my adult until I am ready.

The theater is very large and has a lot of seats.

There might be a lot of people.
I will sit with my family or friends.

We have two choices
when picking our seats.

The first choice is:
My family and I may choose to sit in seats on the first floor. My family and I can sit anywhere we want to sit.

The second choice is:
My family and I can choose to sit in seats on the second floor.

This floor is called the balcony.
The seats in the balcony are up high.
If we want to sit in the balcony, we will walk up the stairs in the lobby and enter the theater upstairs.

Before the show starts,
I can talk to my family and friends.

I will sit in my seat on my back pockets and keep my hands and feet to myself.

If I need to go to the bathroom
before, after, or during the show,
I will walk back into the lobby
with my grown-up.

I will walk downstairs.
The bathrooms are in the basement.

I can also get a drink at the drinking fountain in the basement!

There are also bathrooms on the second floor. I can use these too, especially if I am sitting in the balcony seats.

When I am done with the bathroom,
I will go back to my seat in the theater.

Soon, the lights will get darker and
there will be a pre-show announcement.
This means the show is about to start.

I will be a good audience member.
I will be quiet and watch the stage.

Seeing a performance at a theater is like seeing a movie.

In live theater, the people performing will be right in front of me on stage.
They are called actors.

Actors pretend they are characters and tell a story.

The show will begin with a person making an announcement on a microphone. I can listen to what she is saying with my family.

When the show begins, the lights will go down a little bit.
I don't have to be scared; I am safe.

The actors perform on a set with special scenery,
like doors and windows,
which help the audience know
when and where the story takes place.

Special lights and sounds also help the actors to tell the story.
The lights and sounds won't hurt me.

When a loud noise on stage is about to happen,
I can look for a light that looks like this. When I see the light,
I can cover my ears and prepare.
When the light goes down, the noise is over.

The sounds that help tell the story
will sometimes be loud.
I know that even though the sounds
can be loud and can feel scary.
None of the noise can hurt me.

If things get too loud or I need to take a break, I can go to the Restless Room.
(Classroom 2)

I will walk quietly out of the theater and back into the lobby with my grown-up.

We can watch the show on a TV screen.
There may be other people in the Restless Room too.

We will sit in the Restless Room until I feel better.

When the play is over the actors will form a line
and take a bow like this, I can clap too.
This is called a curtain call.

It is nice to clap for the actors.
When we clap, the actors know that we had fun watching them act!

If it is too loud, I will cover my ears
or hold my grown-up's hand.

Once the curtain call is over, I can ask the actors questions about the show.

After the bow, the lights will come up. I can leave with my grown-up, or stay for a Question and Answer session with the actors, if I wish.

The Question & Answer session will take place in the theater, or I can choose to go to a classroom that looks like this. A Rose theater staff member can help me find the place to go.

If you want to know a little more about some of the surprises in then keep reading!

If you would like to be surprised, stop reading now.

This production of Beauty and the Beast uses color to help tell the story. Belle's town, is mostly brown.

The castle where the beast lives uses mostly the color black.

Belle is dressed in Blue throughout. I will count to see how many other colors Belle wears in the show.

The character of Gaston goes hunting.
I will hear a loud boom in the play.

The sound will not hurt me, I am safe.

When the beast first enters, he will make a loud growling sound. The beast will not hurt me, he is just acting. He will not hurt me, I am safe.

I will see dancers on stage that play wolves. These dancers may dance or act scary. They cannot hurt me. The dancers are safe, I am safe.

Towards the end of the play, Gaston and the beast have a fight. The beast and Gaston pretend to hit each other. The fight is not real. Beast and Gaston are acting, they are safe, I am safe.

In this play, actors will sing and play instruments.
If the music gets too loud, I can cover my ears like this.

I can also look for the orange cone that looks like this.

When the play is over the actors will come out and take a bow. I can clap and show my appreciation, if I want to.

Now I can get ready to...

...enjoy the show!

Then I will go home.
I can talk to my family or friends about the fun things that I saw in the show at The Rose!

My friends at The Rose Theater hope I have a great time at the show,
and are looking forward to seeing me soon!
